

On Monday morning we shared books across the classes. As you can see the children loved this experience!

The whole school dressed up for book week.

All the staff joined in the fun!!

