Dear Parent,

Quantum Theatre Performance – Thursday 7th November

In History this term, Y6 are learning about World War I. To enhance their understanding around this topic, the Quantum Theatre will be coming to school to perform Your Country Needs You at 9.30am on Thursday 7th November.

The play explores the outbreak of war and its subsequent effect on the lives of those at home and on the front as it follows the fate of a 'Pals' Battalion leaving England's shores for the fields of Northern France. Interweaving songs, sketches, poetry and prose from the time the play presents an informative and touching examination of how war affected the lives of ordinary people from both sides of the divide.

The total cost of this performance will be £8.50 per child. This will be added to your Parent Pay account.

Yours sincerely,

Mr R Cunningham & Mrs E Snell
